Federal Judge Extracts Information on Betting from Unwilling Men.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 4.—Government officers were today authorized to search for information today that more than $1,000,000 changed hands daily in the operations of the betting ring exposed by federal judge R. M. Landis in his investigation of bonds under which defendants in the blackmail cases were released.

Charles F. Cline, district attorney, and James E. Stuart, postal inspector, conferred today in an effort to determine whether postal laws had been violated by the syndicate.

While the ring's headquarters are in Chicago, prospective branches were reported to attorney Cline to exist in Cleveland, St. Louis, Houston, Oklahoma City, Des Moines, Denver, Detroit, Omaha, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Boston and Dallas, with perhaps others.

The police made further efforts Tuesday to find the public gambling, evidence of which judge Landis was drawing in detail from unwilling witnesses in his court and a spectacular raid on a west side hotel resulted in 27 persons, one of them a woman, being captured.

The police burst through a locked door and found an excited group, money in hand, just hearing the announcement of a race at Louisville.

Judge Landis meanwhile was extracting further details of the system of disseminating and utilizing race track information in hundreds of saloons here and the correspondents in a score of other cities. Occasionally he would break in on a witness and abruptly induce him to reveal that other forms of gambling, poker, craps and baseball pools, were flourishing in the back rooms of hundreds of saloons and cigar stores.

State attorney Hoyne also spent a busy day, adding to the discomfort of some politicians.

Saloon Bought Memberships.

The confessions of two former employees of the Sportsman's club, which resulted in Monday's raid, were made public and contained assertions that the sale of life memberships to saloonkeepers and gamblers at $100 a membership, was a well systematized and developed branch of the club's organization.

The confessions also revealed that after that saloonkeepers had made arrangements with Charles T. Esig, secretary of the club, they were allowed to maintain slot machines unmolested. Thomas E. Philbin, a club employee who was sent out to urge saloonkeepers to install slot machines, said that a private customer had been skeptical until he had in call in a policeman to insure him it was all right.

MANY ARE HURT IN TEXAS WRECK

Greenville, Texas, Oct. 4.—A score of persons were injured, two of them seriously, shortly before noon today when the Lone Star Special, of the St. Louis and Southwestern (Cotton Belt) railway, southbound, left the track about ten miles east of here.

The cause of the derailment has not been determined. Two women were brought to a hospital here in what was reported to be a serious condition.

FORMER POSTMASTER IS CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Sydney, Neb., Oct. 4.—J. E. Connell, former postmaster of Thompson, Colo., was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment today in connection with the murder of Ira C. Papp, near Sunol, Neb., July 24, last.

Connell and J. Granger Lukens, of Denver, were charged with killing Papp and Paul Vanik following the robbery of the state bank of Sunol. Lukens' trial begins today.

COLORADO IS TO HAVE SCHOOL FOR CANDIDATES.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 4.—A "school" for candidates and orators is to be opened Friday at the Republican state headquarters in the city, reported today. The "pupils" are to go over the national and state platforms to familiarize themselves with their important points.

SAYS RAILROADS GREATLY INJURED

Counsel for Santa Fe Urges National Instead of State Regulation.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4.—Legislation which will provide an orderly and responsible method of settling railroad labor disputes as a substitute for the "terrorism of the strike," was urged as the prime need of the public and of railroad corporations in an address delivered before the fifth annual convention of the Investment Bankers Association of America here today by Walker D. Hines, chairman of the advisory committee and general counsel of the Atchafalaya, Topoka and Santa Fe Railway company.

Favors National Regulation.

Of equal importance, Mr. Hines declared, was legislation whereby state regulations reducing the income of railroads through reductions of rates and increase of costs will be superseded by national regulation; and legislation whereby the power to issue stocks and bonds shall be derived from, and the method of their issue supervised by, the nation.

Railroads Want to Expand.

The public is interested in the railroad companies being able to raise sufficient additional capital to keep the railroad properties abreast of the progressive demands of our rapidly developing business and civilization," said Mr. Hines.

That capital cannot be secured unless investors can be induced to furnish it, and investors cannot be induced to furnish it unless attractive securities can be offered. These securities cannot be attractive unless there is a reasonable prospect that the railroad net income shall not be unduly impaired through fragmentation and through irresponsible exactions of organized labor.

2 DEAD, 60 HURT, AS CARS FALL

Cleveland Bridge Gives Way Under Street Cars, and Wreck Is the Result.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 4.—The death list in Tuesday's bridge tragedy in which two street cars plunged to feet from the West Third street viaduct to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks, remained at two today, but of the 60 injured it was expected one or two would die.

Investigations were under way by city officials and the Cleveland Railway company.

The accident occurred when a southbound Seneca road car, carrying a crowd of women shoppers home at the rush hour broke away from the motorcar on a hill approaching the bridge and tumbled down upon the northbound car which was just as it reached the bridge just as a northbound car reached the same point. The runaway car jumped the track and struck the northbound car. The combined weight of the two cars and the shock of the collision was too much for the wooden bridge, which sagged and then gave down.

A telephone girl, seeing the accident called doctors and ambulances to the scene.

OF FRAUD IN ELECTION

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 4.—A jury in federal court this afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of 11 residents of War Eagle precinct, Mingo county, indicted for fraud in connection with the congressional election of 1914.

During the trial, which occupied more than a week, testimony was given by witnesses that 124 ballots were found in the War Eagle precinct ballot box, this being the exact number of voters registered in the precinct, and that many of the ballots were cast in alphabetical order. Some residents registered as voters testified that they had not voted, although ballots bearing their names were found in the box.

OPINION SAYS UNIONS MAY LIMIT COATS OF PLASTER

Austin, Texas, Oct. 4.—In an opinion rendered by the attorney general's department it is held that the plasterers' union does not violate state laws in its adoption of rules providing how many coats of plaster must be placed on different surfaces, regardless of the architect's specifications, or the nature of the building and the contractor. The opinion holds that union plasterers do not violate the anti-trust laws by observing such rules.

According to the principle announced, the plaster union will be free to make stipulations of the number of coats of plaster and the carpenters the number of shingles.

WILSON SILENT ON PROHIBITION

Fails to Reply to Nebraska Message; Prohibition Campaigners Active.

Wayne, Neb., Oct. 4.—Greatly encouraged over the prospects for a "dry" victory in Nebraska this fall, the prohibition national campaigners today closed their meetings in this state here and left for Iowa and South Dakota points.

President Wilson is coming to Nebraska tomorrow and the dries are hopeful, but not optimistic, over the prospects that he then will state his position on prohibition. In the light of his coming, both J. P. Hanly and Ira Landrith, the prohibition candidates, continued today to call attention to the fact that he had failed to reply to two telegrams sent from the dry special train asking him how he stood on prohibition.

His pressing duties and his official dignity, Landrith said, "will not permit him to take notice of the two respectful telegrams he received neither too busy nor too dignified to tell one O'Leary what he thinks of a man who calls him a pro-British sympathizer."

WILSON REFUSES TO SPEAK BEFORE REACHING OMAHA

Alliance, O., Oct. 4.—President Wilson, who is expected to reach Omaha as he passed through the middle west, en route to Omaha, Neb., today, at Salem and Alliance, O., several thousand persons packed the railroad stations and applauded as Mr. Wilson stepped to the rear platform of his private car.

When the president awoke this morning he found several hundred telegrams from people along his route urging him at least to show himself. He was informed if he would only consent to speak in several places for a few minutes, large crowds could be gathered easily. He refused, however, to make any speeches before reaching Omaha.

TAX SCHEDULE OF MINING MEN READ

Mexican Commissioners Say Operators' Opinions Will Go To Carranza.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 4.—Further consideration by the Mexican-American joint commission was given today to the plan of border patrol proposed by the Mexican members. It was regarded as probable that Maj. Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, assistant chief of staff of the army, would advise the American commission.

That the plan involving withdrawal of Gen. Pershing's forces from Mexico would be adopted prior to a definite understanding regarding Gen. Carranza's attitude respecting the reopening of mines and other industries was regarded as improbable.

What they regard as an equitable schedule of taxes was submitted to the Mexican members of the Mexican-American joint commission Tuesday by the committee representing American mining interests in the republic.

For two hours they were in conference with Luis Calles, head of the American commission and minister of finance in his country, and Alberto Pastar, another member who is director general of the treasury.

Seclude to go to Carranza.

No assurances were given the mining men that their schedule would be adopted but it was understood that it would be submitted to the Carranza government.

The question of transportation was discussed and the objections referred against what the mining men consider confiscatory tax decrees.

Again Meet American Commissioners.

The necessary preliminary to such a plan would be the return to Mexico of American mining operators who have withdrawn during the recent disturbances. The government of the United States cannot encourage such return, it was pointed out, until satisfactory assurances are given with reference to the safety of life and property in the district in which operations are to be resumed.

MEXICAN BANK BILLS RISE AFTER FOREIGN PROTEST

Bank bills of the Banco Nacional de Mexico and the Banco de Londres y Mexico, two of the largest banking institutions in Mexico City, continued to increase in price here Wednesday as the local banks which handle Mexican exchange.

Following the decree of September 5, issued by Gen. Carranza, requiring metallic reserve for all bills issued by these banks, the currency dropped four cents, and the Banco de Londres y Mexico, and to 1 1/2 cents for Banco Nacional bills.

The protest of the British and French embassies to the American state department is given as the reason, and bankers predict a further rise.

ANDRES G. GARCIA, FORMER CONSUL, TAKES UP NEW WORK

ANDRES G. GARCIA, FORMER CONSUL, TAKES UP NEW WORK

Andres G. Garcia, who for two years had held down the position of consul for the Constitutional government at El Paso, Wednesday morning took charge of his new office, that of inspector general for separating the division and cavalry, artillery, wagon trains and infantry, will march along the main wagon road from here to Las Cruces.

There is much rivalry among the different commands in the matter of keeping in line, and few of the men have fallen out. While the command is attended by ample hospital accommodations, there is little need for them. Kentucky, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Michigan and Massachusetts men are straining a point to make the record for having the smallest percentage of sickness in the division.

There is music almost constantly all along the lengthy line of march, the various regimental bands playing an especially particularly appealing to the men. The southern bands show a preference for " Dixie," or in the case of the Kentuckians in particular, "My Old Kentucky Home." The Massachusetts bands are strong for "Yankee Doodle." The cheering is not confined to the men from any particular region, however, for any particular music. The Yankee boys cheer "Dixie" as lustily as "Yankee Doodle," and they all cheer the "My Old Kentucky Home."

QUARTERMASTER SERGEANT DIED BY OWN HAND, SAYS CORONER'S VERDICT

Quartermaster Sergeant Died By Own Hand, Says Coroner's Verdict.

The body of Sergt. Frank A. Alexander, of the quartermaster corps of the army, stationed at Fort Clark, Texas, was found Tuesday evening at 6:55 o'clock in a room at 291 South St. Vrain street, with a bullet wound in the right ear. In his right hand was found at 45 caliber automatic pistol.

Mrs. Alexander, who was the only witness of the affair, was found kneeling on the floor beside the body of her husband, crying, when a party of police officers entered the room.

Sergt. Alexander was about 40 years of age and is survived by his wife and a baby son. According to the story of Mrs. Alexander to coroner James M. Deaver, she and her husband had been separated for about two months, but had intended to leave for Fort Clark Tuesday night, where he had been ordered. She stated that he said something to her that she did not like and they had quarreled prior to the shooting, and that he also made a pass at her as if he intended to shoot before he placed the pistol in his right ear.

A verdict of death by the victim's own hand was rendered in the case by coroner M. Deaver.

Sergt. Alexander was well known at Fort Bliss, having served in the quartermaster department there. Recently he was assigned to Fort Clark for duty. Last Saturday morning he left his pistol at the office of the quartermaster guard in the police station, returning for it Tuesday afternoon.

TENT DIVISION IS AT ANTHONY

Infantry and Artillery Rests While the Cavalry Works Out Problems.

Anthony, N. M., Oct. 4.—Troopers of the 10th division, United States army, after spending the night just north of Anthony, remained here today for a rest. Tomorrow, the fifth day of their practice hike to Fort Selden, they expect to march to Mesquite.

It is necessary for the division to camp near a railroad siding, where tank cars can be set out to furnish water. Fresh meat is also set out at these sidings for the evening meal of the soldiers.

The cavalry, which was first to arrive here yesterday, has been engaged today in maneuvering in this locality, "scouting for the enemy."

Massachusetts En Route.

It is expected that Las Cruces will be reached Friday night and Fort Selden Saturday night. Instead of making quick march to Selden and maneuvering there, Gen. Parker decided to maneuver his men as the division marches, slowly up to the line of the main wagon road from here to Las Cruces.

The halt today, while it is giving all except the cavalry a rest, is ostensibly to "feel out" the country for the enemy, theoretically known to be in force at the present time.

The men are in good spirits and are standing the march well. They were able to march from south of Canutillo to Anthony yesterday, having saved many of the way. A turnout was necessary from Vinton to a point just south of this place, but the rest of the way they were able to use the paving.

From this point north, the roads are good.

Plenty of Water.

Water wagons preceded the marching columns yesterday and left water in immense sheet iron vats, where cannon barrels are tilted, and men have most of these vats.

Each morning the men have hot breakfast, and at night they get hot meals, fresh meat and hot bread or the supply trucks. The noonday meal consists of field rations, moved on the march.

The artillery and trucks moved north yesterday over the "west side" road, crossing the bridge at Canutillo and coming back to Anthony.

Good Roads Rest of Way.

With the good roads available from Anthony north, there is no further occasion for separating the division and cavalry, artillery, wagon trains and infantry, will march along the main wagon road from here to Las Cruces.

There is much rivalry among the different commands in the matter of keeping in line, and few of the men have fallen out. While the command is attended by ample hospital accommodations, there is little need for them. Kentucky, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Michigan and Massachusetts men are straining a point to make the record for having the smallest percentage of sickness in the division.

There is music almost constantly all along the lengthy line of march, the various regimental bands playing an especially particularly appealing to the men. The southern bands show a preference for " Dixie," or in the case of the Kentuckians in particular, "My Old Kentucky Home." The Massachusetts bands are strong for "Yankee Doodle." The cheering is not confined to the men from any particular region, however, for any particular music. The Yankee boys cheer "Dixie" as lustily as "Yankee Doodle," and they all cheer the "My Old Kentucky Home."

FRANCISCO VILLA WILL ATTACK PARRAL, REPORT; GEN. GONZALES TO BE GIVEN BANQUET

FRANCISCO VILLA WILL ATTACK PARRAL, REPORT; GEN. GONZALES TO BE GIVEN BANQUET.

Francisco Villa is to celebrate his saint's day today by an attack upon Parral, according to reports brought to the border by Mexicans from Chihuahua City.

Today also is the saint's day of Gen. Francisco Gonzalez, commander of the Carranza garrison at Juarez. A banquet in honor of the general will be given tonight by officers of his staff.

Col. Ricardo Cortinas, commander of the Carranza garrison at Casas Grandes and an aide, Capt. Dionicio Ochoa, arrived in Juarez yesterday with an injured ankle treated. The injury was received when the colonel was roping a horse at Casas Grandes, when the horse dragged him for a short distance. Gen. Cortinas denies that the injury was caused by a bullet wound, sustained in fighting with Villistas near Casas Grandes.

A new version of the fight at El Valle, in which one American soldier and one Carranza soldier were killed, which occurred last week, was given by Col. Cortinas. Six American soldiers, all of whom had been drinking, attempted to enter El Valle, despite the warning of the Carranza guard which surrounded the town. One American soldier drew a revolver and fired at the sentry, who shot and killed him. The fight followed.

A letter received in El Paso from Torreon, yesterday stated that Villista bandits were encamped within a few miles of that city, which was practically surrounded. Scores of people in Torreon are dying from starvation, it said.

VILLA KILLS TURK AND 2 CHINESE

Foreigners are Slain After Fight at Cusiuhuirachi, Message States.

Two Chinese and a Turk were killed by Francisco Villa at Cusiuhuirachi, Mexico, following the fight with Carrancista soldiers under Gen. Matias Marmos, a message received from the Carranza forces at Juarez, yesterday stated. A report that five Turks, eleven Chinese and a Japanese had been killed there was denied by men who have come from the Cusiuhuirachi district since the battle of September 25.

Gen. Gandara with a train of Carranza troops left Chihuahua City Tuesday for Cusiuhuirachi to reorganize the Carranza forces in the district. Villa after the fight with Gen. Marmos, Gen. Carlos Ochoa, in command of the Carranza forces at Cusiuhuirachi, is sending troops into the Guerrero district in pursuit of Villa, reports from Chihuahua City state.

GONZALES DENIES REPORTS OF CHIHUAHUA CITY FIGHT

Rumors of fighting in Chihuahua City between Villistas and the Carranza forces of Gen. Jacinto R. Trevino, of the presence of Villistas at San, 28 miles north of Chihuahua City, and of a passenger train being stopped and looted by Carranza officers at Villa Ahumada, were received here from Mexican sources Wednesday, but were denied by Gen. Francisco Gonzalez, military commander of Juarez. Tuesday he stated that the railroad and telephone lines had not been disturbed and no Villistas were near the Mexican Central line between Juarez and Chihuahua City.

BRITISH SEIZE FRENCH VILLAGE

French Advance, Capture German Defences; Baume Western Goal.

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 4.—German and Bulgarian forces on the western end of the Macedonian front, where heavy fighting with the Serbians has been in progress for several weeks, again have fallen back. Today's statement reports the withdrawal of troops near Presba lake to prepared positions.

The allied attack along the Somme front resulted Tuesday in further fighting near Thiepval and Monquet farm. The repulse of the British is reported in today's announcement.

Withdrawal of the Teutonic forces in the Presba lake region would place the Serbians in close proximity to Monastir, the most important town in southern Serbia, and toward which the Serbian wing of the entente forces is driving.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 4.—The war office announced today that the town of Baucourt l'Abbaye, on the Somme front, for possession of which heavy fighting has been in progress for several days, is now entirely in the hands of the British.

The French are continuing their thrust northward on the Peronne-Baume road and have captured among German defences between Morval and the St. Pierre Vaast wood, Paris announces today.

With the British in Baucourt l'Abbaye, their drive towards Baume now is within 3-4 miles of its objective.

What Are Rumanians Doing?

Mystery still surrounds the numbers and movements of the Rumanian army which crossed the Danube in an effort to outflank the Bulgarian left and compel field marshal von Mackensen to retreat. Sofia mentions the forces as comprising "considerable units," but records no contact between them and the Bulgarians.

Bulgarians Occupy an Island.

The Bulgarians apparently are either engaged in frustrating another Rumanian movement to cross the Danube or are attempting to supplement this sort themselves. They report the Rumanians are making to keep up communications with this force are unknown. Such a report has not alluded to the movement.

Russian Gunboats Attack Bulgars.

Petrograd, Russia, Oct. 4.—Russian troops are continuing their offensive against the forces of the central powers and their allies in the Rumanian province of Dobruja, says the Russian statement today. Russian gunboats on the river Danube have bombarded the left flank of the Bulgarian army near Rachova, which lies about 11 miles south of Tchernavoda.

Russian and Teutonic troops continue to fight stubborn battles in the region west of Rumbur. Near Chelvo and Korythina stubborn battles continue.
